

SERVICES COVERED BY THE NEW HCBS RULE

The following services are covered by the new rule:

- Adult day services center, including basic and specialized adult day services
- Alternative care facilities (ACFs)/Assisted living facilities (ALFs)
- Day treatment facilities under the HCBS Brain Injury waiver
- Child Residential Habilitation settings, including
 - Foster care homes
 - Kinship foster care
 - Non-certified kinship care
 - Specialized group facilities including group homes and group centers
 - Residential child care facilities
- Day habilitation/treatment settings for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities including
 - Specialized habilitation
 - Supported community connections
 - Prevocational services facilities
- Group Residential Services and Supports (community residential homes for four to eight people)
- Individual Residential Services and Supports (IRSS) homes for up to 3 people, including
 - Host homes
 - Family homes
 - Own homes
 - Apartment settings
- Private homes belonging to clients or their families, professional provider offices, and clinics which are presumed to compliant with the federal settings requirements
- Supported Employment locations, including group and individual program locations
- Supported Living Program facilities under HCBS Brain Injury Waiver
- Transitional Living Program facilities under the HCBS Brain Injury Waiver
- Youth day service settings under the CES waiver, including
 - The child's home
 - The provider's home
 - And other child care centers