FREE: Restraint in Schools Trainings for Parents/Guardians

Disability Law Colorado (formerly The Legal Center for People with Disabilities and Older People) is presenting a free training about the rules that apply when a child is restrained in school. We recommend that all parents/guardians of children with disabilities attend this training.

The training will focus on the legal requirements of school districts regarding seclusion and physical restraint. There will be time for Q&A.

We can arrange for interpretation services (ASL, other languages) as needed. Please make sure to include your interpretation or other accommodation needs when registering for the training, so that we can prepare accordingly.
